- This document may contain capitalized terms that are not defined herein, or may contain terms that are discussed in other documents or that are commonly understood. You should make no assumptions about the meaning of capitalized terms that are not defined, and you should consult with advisors of AAFAF should clarification be required.
- The report dated January 19, 2018, "Summary of Bank account Balances for Puerto Rico Governmental Instrumentalities As of December 31 2017," (the "Bank Account Balance Report") disclosed the balance of Other Puerto Rico Treasury Custody Accounts of $580 million as of December 31, 2017. This balance was further segmented into $374M in pension-related funds (Employee Withholdings and Pay-Go Charges), $142M in Central Government non-TSA funds (lottery-related funds and other funds held and administered by central government agencies), and $64M held TSA Sweep Accounts that collect income and completely pass through to TSA on a daily basis (includes General Collections Posts, Agency Collections Posts, and SUT). As further set forth in the Bank Account Balance Report, processes are currently in place to continue evaluating the accounts, including analyzing the cash inflows and outflows and reviewing legal restrictions relative to funds deposited into the bank accounts.

TSA receipts include tax collections, charges for services, intergovernmental collections, the proceeds of short and long-term debt issuances and amounts held in custody by the Secretary of the Treasury for the benefit of the Commonwealth's fiduciary funds. Only a portion of the revenues received by the TSA is included in the annual General Fund budget presented to the Puerto Rico Legislative Assembly for approval. Other revenues are separately assigned by law to certain agencies or public corporations but still flow through the TSA.

Introduction

- Enclosed is the weekly Treasury Single Account ("TSA") cash flow report and supporting schedules.
- TSA is the Commonwealth's main operational bank account (concentration account) in which a majority of receipts from Governmental funds are deposited and from which most expenses are disbursed.
- Beginning April 2016, TSA receipts are deposited in a commercial bank account rather than the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico ("GDB").
- Receipts in the TSA include tax collections (including revenues assigned to certain public corporations and pledged for the payment of their debt service), charges for services, intergovernmental collections (such as reimbursements from Federal assistance grants), the proceeds of short and long-term debt issuances held in custody by the Secretary of Treasury for the benefit of the Government fiduciary funds, and other receipts. Only a portion of the revenues received by the TSA is included in the annual General Fund budget presented to the Puerto Rico Legislative Assembly for approval. Other revenues are separately assigned by law to certain agencies or public corporations but still flow through the TSA.
- Disbursements from the TSA include payroll and related costs, vendor and operational disbursements (including those reimbursed by Federal assistance grants and funded from Special Revenue Funds), welfare expenditures, capital outlays, debt service payments, required budgetary formulas and appropriation payments, pass-through payments of pledged revenues to certain public corporations, tax refunds, payments of current pension benefits and other disbursements.
- Federal funds related to disaster relief for hurricanes Irma and Maria are deposited in a separate bank account overseen by the Government Authorized Representative ("GAR"), and transferred to the TSA only after admissible disbursements (per approved Project Worksheets) have been made.
- *Data for TSA inflows/outflows is reported from various systems within the Department of Treasury of Puerto Rico ("DTPR"):
Cash Flow Actual Results - Source for the actual results is the TSA Cash Flow.
Schedule A - Collections - Source for collections information is the DTPR collections system.*
- *Data limitations and commentary:
The government has focused on the seven schedules above for which access to reliable, timely, and detailed data is available to support these items. The government continues to work with DTPR and other parties to access additional reliable data that would help us provide detail in the future for other line items in the Cash Flow.*

Footnotes:

(a) Includes reserve for tax returns and Special Revenue Fund portion of posted collections.

(b) Paygo charges to municipalities and public corporations collected at the TSA.

(c) Federal funds related to disaster relief for hurricanes Irma and Maria are deposited in a separate bank account overseen by the Government Authorized Representative ("GAR"), and transferred to the TSA only after admissible disbursements (per approved Project Worksheets) have been made. These inflows to the TSA are captured in Federal Funds Receipts.

(d) Inflows related to the Department of Health, Department of Labor and Human Resources, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, and others.

(e) Payroll is paid bi-weekly on the 15th and 30th (or last day of the month, whichever comes sooner).

(f) Related to employee withholdings, social security, insurance, and other deductions.

(g) Police payroll is reflected individually because it is paid through a separate bank account. Also, the police payroll line item shown in the TSA cash flow is gross (i.e. inclusive of Other Payroll Related Items).

(h) Includes payments to third-party vendors as well as intergovernmental payments to agencies with separate Treasuries.

(i) This refers to General Fund appropriations to non-TSA entities such as Legislative Assembly, Correctional Health, Comprehensive Cancer Center, and others.

(j) Excludes Banco Popular of Puerto Rico Account with balance of approximately $147M; Amounts deposited in GDB subject to GDB restructuring.

Footnotes:

(a) Collections presented only include Act 154 Collections received into the Collections Post Account (CPA). Additional Act 154 Collections are received into a separate account and cash flow line item, shown on page 6 in line 4: Excise Tax through Banco Popular. Total Act 154 Collections are therefore the sum of these two amounts.

(b) Retained Revenues are revenues conditionally assigned to certain public corporations and the collections of those revenues are through accounts referred to as "pass through" accounts, the majority of which include (i) ACAA auto insurance, (ii) AFI/RBC petroleum tax, (iii) ASC personal injury insurance, and (iv) HTA toll revenues.

(c) Due to timing. Receipts in collections post account occur approximately two business days prior to being deposited into the TSA.
